

TUBOLITO SPONSORSHIP APPLICATION

Partnership Proposal from Rising Dirt Jump Athlete Mateusz (@xPyszczek_)

As a 16-year-old dirt jump athlete and recipient of a prestigious Ministry of Sport scholarship, I am eager to partner with Tubolito. I aim to showcase your innovative lightweight and durable tubes in the demanding world of competitive dirt jumping, elevating both my performance and your brand visibility.

Tubolito's commitment to breaking barriers in toughness, weight, and size perfectly aligns with the extreme demands of dirt jumping. Your S-Tubo tubes, in particular, offer a significant advantage by reducing rotating mass, which is crucial for faster spins, higher jumps, and more precise trick execution. This partnership would highlight the tangible benefits of Tubolito technology in real-world, high-performance scenarios.

WHY TUBOLITO NEEDS ME AS BRAND AMBASSADOR

1 Perfect Product Match

Dirt jumping demands lightweight, durable tubes - exactly what Tubolito's S-Tubo delivers for rotating mass reduction

2 Proven Dedication

Ministry of Sport scholarship recipient with track record of athletic excellence and commitment to the grind

3 Early Partnership Opportunity

Get in early with a rising star - maximum brand loyalty and authentic growth story as I develop in the sport

PARTNERSHIP PROPOSAL

What I Offer:

Brand representation at competitions, authentic product testing, detailed performance feedback, content creation showcasing durability

What I Seek:

Product sponsorship (S-Tubo tubes), branding on outfit/bike, support for competition travel and development

Partnership Benefits:

Early investment in rising talent, authentic athlete testimonials, exposure to engaged dirt jumping community

Together, we can build each other up. This partnership is about pushing the boundaries of performance and achieving new heights, both for the athlete and the brand.

LET'S PUSH BOUNDARIES TOGETHER

This partnership represents a unique opportunity for mutual growth and performance excellence. By combining your innovative S-Tubo technology with my dedication as an athlete, we can achieve new milestones and showcase the superior quality of your products.

I am committed to representing Tubolito with passion and professionalism across all platforms. This includes prominent branding during sessions and competitions, active promotion through my online presence, and consistent, authentic testimonials.

Furthermore, I will provide invaluable rider feedback, contributing directly to your product development cycle and helping to continually raise the bar in tube technology. My insights from real-world performance will ensure that Tubolito remains at the forefront of innovation.
